HOW TO ELEVATE YOUR

Your Life

Michelle Smith Roberts

When God speaks a word or phrase into our lives, He does so with great intention. In a world where products, services and ideas are constantly bombarding the air waves, WORDS matter. Our theme "ELEVATE Your Life" is no exception. On the surface, it may seem like the latest phrase craze, but God spoke these words to get our attention and impart His intention. To elevate is to raise or lift something up to a higher position. The reality is that we often try to ELEVATE our lives in ways that are contrary to the plan God ordained before the ages. If God ordained the plan, it means He has decreed things; ruled on matters; given commands to be carried out; encouraged and admonished people to action; established people, places and things; fixed some situations; enacted some laws on your behalf; legislated matters in heaven and earth; ruled as a dictator in other matters; prescribed some remedies for you to follow and made some pronouncements about who you are and who you are not. Wow! Without question, we must decide who God is to us. Is He MASTER? "Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it:" Psalms 127:1a NKJV So how do we elevate our lives? The Apostle Paul could have magnified himself with his impressive resume. Instead he humbled himself and, like His Master "made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant." Philippians 2:7 NKJV Instead, Paul put forth the following credentials, his life in Christ, as reason to trust his ministry. Our elevation is in our whole story, not just the "good" parts. "But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fasting, by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report, as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as chastened, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things."

ELEVATE Your Life | Grow & Glow

Nishon Geary

Have you ever heard that voice of negativity that wants to sabotage your faith? Life can become blocked by fear, old traumas and unexplored emotions. Have you ever found yourself afraid to step out on faith? Have your goals ever felt like they were a million miles away? Have you ever been on a personal journey and continue to run into roadblocks? Have you ever felt like you will never be able to elevate? Sometimes we find ourselves with this negative fixed mindset and in order to succeed, you need to change from a fixed mindset to a growth mindset. Once you change your mindset, you can create your own personal reality. Begin to shift your thoughts, feelings, and actions that you produce. You must begin to take full control and responsibility of your life to elevate into new levels. In order to thoroughly elevate your life, you must remain connected to your highest true self. The true meaning of life is when you give your life a meaning. For me, my life began to elevate when I began building my spiritual walk. I found myself tending to my physical body and ignoring the spiritual components. Although most people have some understanding about spirituality, many of us are still stuck on the basic level. People like to flirt with God, but not make a total commitment. They may express their interests in a subtle way to test the waters.

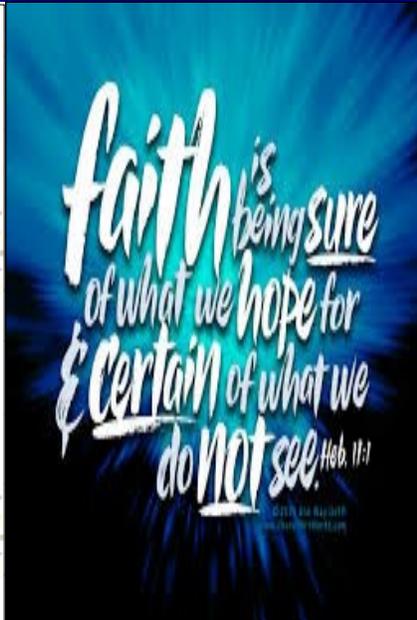

However, in order to elevate and grow your spiritual relationship with God, it needs cultivated like any other relationship. You may start off slow with small talk, then move into lengthier conversations. Before you know it, you find yourself beginning to open up and spending more time with Him. Next thing you know, you are researching Him and wanting to know all about Him. You find yourself wanting to study and learn more about Him, so now you are reading the Bible. Then you find yourself getting closer to Him and you wanting a more personal relationship. Now, you are asking deeper questions and looking for a committed relationship. You desire one-on-one time and want to be totally dependent on Him. Getting to know God takes time. The more time you spend with Him, the more you will see your life elevating to Godly places. When God decides to elevate you, He will open doors that no man can shut on you! We can not do it with our own power. God will come and find you and elevate you to amazing places. According to Psalm 20:4 (ESV) - May God grant your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans. My question to you is, are you ready to be elevated?

FAITH..... Life's Elevator!

Ethlyn O Ottley

Faith is the component that is necessary for life elevation. Just as flour is one of the main ingredients that is needed when you are going to bake a cake, so is faith. Believers as well as unbelievers use faith daily in numerous areas. Some might call it karma or fate, whatever the choice faith is a player in this game called life. Faith is a force, a life-giving substance that pleases God. The Bible states in Hebrews 11:1 "Now faith is the substance of things hope for the evidence of things not seen." It goes onto say in Hebrews 11:6, "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Faith also provides evidence and when it is provided it has the ability to shift your perspective. A person in the United States is presumed innocent until proven guilty, so most of the time evidence is gathered by both the defense attorney and the prosecuting attorney.

One is working for him and the other against. Depending on what is revealed the individual will go to jail or granted his freedom. Your perspective will affect your response to situations and circumstances. Faith is the elevator that will shift your outlook. The evidence of your faith will be revealed by your actions. Maybe you are experiencing a financial challenge, you then decide to pray. When you pray, read the Bible and even go to work, your behavior that says, "I am believing God for finances." You action says "I asked, and this is one of the ways in which I will receive my financial release. We wait in great anticipation for what we believe and that it will be seen. The expectation that God will answer keeps one in faith with thanksgiving and praise. These two bring the aspect that the answer is eminent. In all of life's challenges faith allows us to access God, as he uses it as a leveraging tool to propel us to our next level. In faith lies everything that is needed for your life elevation.

Elevate Your Mindset About Money

More than ever before, there is an increased desire and need among people today and across all age groups to elevate—raise to a more important or impressive level—their knowledge of finances, maximize the spending power of the dollar, and capitalize on opportunities to make and have more money. While these priorities are all great, it is important that you first understand that currency—something (such as coins, treasury notes, and banknotes) that is in circulation as a medium of exchange—produces energy. Therefore, the exchange of money should be seen as an energetic transfer. And yet there is so much guilt, shame, embarrassment and pain around the subject. The reality is there are a few areas of our lives that cause more disappointment, anxiety, depression and sleepless nights. However, like anything, we can totally change our relationship to money if we change the way we perceive it, and our belief system around it. Even if you are not in the financial position you desire to be in at the moment, elevating your mindset and perception of money is the first step toward attracting the money you desire to have and deserve. And, frankly, in recent years we have seen the misuse of the power of money used to manipulate, control, devalue, and marginalize others.

The Holy Bible references so many scriptures about money and teaches us invaluable principles upon which our spiritual belief system towards money should be built. Here are a few scriptures for your reference. “For wisdom is a defense, and money is a defense: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.” Ecclesiastes 7:12 KJV “A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.” Ecclesiastes 10:19 KJV “And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers.” Matthews 28:12 KJV “And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.” Mark 12:41 KJV “And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.” Luke 22:5 KJV “For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.” 1 Timothy 6:10 KJV. “Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and that given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor, this is the gift of God.” Ecclesiastes 5:19 KJV “Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.” Psalm 112:3 KJV “If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much:” Job 31:25 KJV

Reasons Why it is Biblically Sound to Have Wealth

When you have wealth, you can support businesses and causes that you align with!
Regardless of your level of affluence, justification of your abundance may arise. Whether it is for an extravagant personal amenity, service or experience, you are not required to justify it because your motivation is not from a selfish place.

Wealth magnifies your persona and makes you more of whom you really are.
Those who believe that money changes you into a bad person are mistaken. Money is an amplifier. If you're generous you will be more generous. If you're selfish, you will continue to be selfish.

You demonstrate authenticity which leads to success, and inspires others
There are people you admire and ascribe to emulate who live an authentic balanced life of Godliness, humility affluence and wealth. They're making money doing what they are passionate about and love to do which serves as inspiration, encouragement and genuine motivation for you!

You can create opportunities for future generations
Beyoncé and other celebrities are using their resources to position others by awarding scholarships to promising young women while Jay Z is committed to extensive work in improving the criminal justice system and social justice and equality. Having money and putting it where your mouth is can directly help others. You can help transform the lives of the disenfranchised and less fortunate.

In conclusion, elevate your mindset about finances and spiritually connect and align with the energy to attract money! “Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor, this is the gift of God.” Ecclesiastes 5:19 KJV “Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.” Psalm 112:3 KJV “If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much:” Job 31:25 KJV.

You can create the world you envision and build a safe haven for people who share your values
Virgin Galactic founder Richard Branson, dreamed one day he'd ride into space aboard his company's spaceplane, and now he knows when. In February, 2019, he announced his first trip will coincide with the anniversary of the first landing of astronauts on the moon. If you want to change the world within your lifetime, having God's favor, vision, persistence and access to resources is the fastest way to do it.

USE YOUR KEYS

Lita Aleese

Are you aware that you have keys that can open doors?

☐ 1 They are not physically on your keychain. When we become born again, we gain access in Christ to an inheritance which far exceeds any earthly inheritance. Becoming aware of this [your] spiritual inheritance, begins to open doors for you that no man can close. When we come into alignment with God's kingdom plan, it activates within us a sphere of influence and impact far beyond what we could physically see or even imagine.

☐ 2 God chose YOU before you were even a whisper of a thought, to be a part of His plan and purpose to bring the light and freedom of His kingdom to the places and people who desperately need it. Receiving revelation from the Holy Spirit through reading the word of God and cultivating a relationship with Him, are keys to walking in increasing prosperity and success. God has given us our very own set of keys to His Heavenly Kingdom.

☐ 3 How awesome is that! His keys give us authority and power rights in our very own hands. It also gives us provision through our life's journey. This is not just monetarily. Let us think deeper and wider. Think Kingdom! Know your keys! Use your keys and see your sphere of influence and impact expand far beyond your dreams. This will blow your mind! Your keys will also unlock doors for others! What?! Yes! You, yourself – yes YOU, are a key through which the power of God can flow. You are a pillar of God in your family, in your workplace, in your community and in this world.
